CATHOLIC HEALTH
INITIATIVES®
A spirit of innovation, a legacy of care.
Captive Management Initiative, Ltd. (CMI)
Peter Jones, Managing Director
Captive Management Initiatives is a captive management and consulting firm serving the health care industry. CMI provides management services such as bookkeeping, reporting and records management; and consulting services such as feasibility studies for new captive insurance companies and evaluations of existing companies' corporate structures. Established in 2008, CMI is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Catholic Health Initiatives.

Catholic Health Initiatives
Physician Services (CHIPS)
Englewood, Colorado
Beth Cafaro, JD, President, CHI Physician Services, and Vice President, Practice Operations
CHIPS is a CHI majority-owned joint-venture management services organization (MSO) developed in partnership with MedSynergies, Inc. CHIPS delivers key business functions and practice management services to physicians across multiple markets through one, centralized national organization.

CHI Foundation
Colorado Springs, Colorado
Joseph V. Maloney, President and CEO
The CHI Foundation exists to improve, increase and encourage philanthropy across CHI. The organization provides finance, operations and grant development services to support the philanthropy efforts of Catholic Health Initiatives’ local foundations.

CHI Institute for Research and Innovation (CIRI)
Englewood, Colorado
David J. Fine, President and CEO
CIRI was created in 2011 to direct all research and development initiatives in CHI’s Center for Clinical Trials, Center for Health Care Innovation and Center for Translational Research.

Consolidated Health Services
Milford, Ohio
Daniel Dietz, President and CEO
Consolidated Health Services is a home care service provider operating in more than 30 locations throughout the United States.

Venture Capital Group
Englewood, Colorado
Nick Barto, Senior Vice President, Capital Finance
Venture Capital Group was established in 2012 to identify strategic partnerships, investment opportunities and growth activities for Catholic Health Initiatives. The new organization will make direct investments in companies that build CHI’s care delivery capabilities and develop alternative financing and ownership models to enable the growth/commercialization of services such as clinical engineering, revenue cycle, supply chain and information technology.

Virtual Health Services
Englewood, Colorado
Steve Moye, President
Virtual Health Services provides a platform for innovation and new care delivery models as CHI transforms how it delivers care. Currently offering telePharmacy and teleRadiology services, VHS will expand services for health care organizations looking for efficient ways to fill physician and other health professional shortages, fill specialty gaps and offer patients greater access to medical care.

CHAN HEALTHCARE
Clayton, Missouri
Steven Strammello, CEO
chanllc.com
CHAN HEALTHCARE was formed in 1997 through a partnership between Catholic Health Initiatives and Ascension Health. In 2013, CHI and Ascension Health formed a strategic partnership between CHAN and Crowe Horwath LLP, creating one of the largest providers of internal audit and financial advisory services in the nation. Both CHI and Ascension retain an ownership interest in the combined enterprise.

Conifer Health Solutions
Frisco, Texas
Stephen Mooney, President
coniferhealth.com
CHI and Tenet Healthcare Corp. partner in the ownership of Conifer Health Solutions, a company that helps health care organizations manage financial risk, improve alignment with physician groups and implement population health management. Conifer also provides patient scheduling services that streamline the process for improved patient satisfaction; and care management capabilities that help seamlessly coordinate patient care across the continuum and achieve high patient engagement rates.

Pathology Associates Medical Laboratories (PAML)
Spokane, Washington
Francisco Velázquez, MD, CEO
paml.com
PAML is a full-service medical reference laboratory in which Catholic Health Initiatives has an equity position in partnership with Providence Health & Services, Seattle, Washington.
